SAMUEL AYERS.

FORMERLY OF DANVILLE, KENTUCKY.
WATCH MAKER.

Successor to B. F. Meek, Main Street, Frankfort, Ky., continues the watch repairing business at the old stand. By promptness and careful work he hopes to merit the patronage of those who desire to have their watches repaired without damage being done them. Surveyors' compasses repaired and other instruments requiring delicate and accurate adjustment.

In retiring from business in Frankfort I take pleasure in expressing my entire confidence in Mr. S. Ayers, and from my long acquaintance with him as a workman, do not hesitate to commend him as every way capable of meeting the expectation of my former patrons.

Job Work Neatly Executed at this Office.

Smoke the Will S. Hays at Kendall's.

The jury in the case of Frank Steele, charged with the murder of W. G. Welch, brought in a verdict, at Versailles, Thursday, of imprisonment for life.

The New Orleans Minstrel entertainment to-night will be free from everything objectionable. They do not skate close to the lines of indecency for the edification of back seats in the hall.

Mr. H. Clay Sale, formerly of Louisville, but now traveling salesman for Beckham, Mercer & Co., the wholesale grocers of this city, came in Wednesday from a very successful trip in Kansas and Southwestern Missouri. Messrs. Beckham, Mercer & Co. are to be congratulated upon having secured in Mr. Sale what was considered the best grocery man that ever traveled out of Louisville. He will soon be joined by Mrs. Sale, nee Miss Jennie Murphy, of Frankfort, Ky., who will prove quite an acquisition to the already large and creditable Kentucky social coterie.—Modern Argo, Kansas City, Mo.

A Noteworthy Firm Change.

As will be seen by an announcement published in another column of this issue, the long and favorably known firm of Gregory, Stagg & Co., of St. Louis, has been succeeded by Messrs. Stagg, Hume & Co. The members of the new firm are Capt. George T. Stagg and Wm. S. Hume, of St. Louis, and Mr. Edmund H. Taylor, Jr., of Frankfort, Ky. It would indeed be difficult to conceive of a combination of gentlemen representing in a larger degree the intelligence, experience and enterprise requisite in any business undertaking, and when to these essential personal qualities is added abundant resources, it is safe to predict for Messrs. Stagg, Hume & Co. a career of continuous and conspicuous prosperity.—The Wine and Spirit Review.

Bridgeport.

Mr. F. M. Scofield has been to Louisville this week.

The farmers are busily engaged in sowing wheat.

Mr. A. J. Hulett, of Benson, was in the village this week.

The cabbage crop in this section is better than at first anticipated.

Born.—October 9th, 1882, to Taylor Parrent and wife, a daughter.

Mr. J. H. Bailey, U. S. Storekeeper, looked in on us this week.

Mrs. Frances Pucket, with her son, Billie Wilson, have gone to Louisville with a view to locating.

Messrs Wm Crook and Phil Parrent, have returned from a trip to Missouri. They say Old Kentucky is good enough for them.

Switzer.

J. W. Gayle is at home on a visit this week.

Mrs. Smith, of Pains Depot, spent several days with friends in this neighborhood last week.

Miss Emma Stone returned home last Sunday after a visit of several days at Mrs. South's.

Miss Bettie Jones, who has been visiting Miss Orpha Thomason, returned home last Monday.

Mrs. Poplin and Mr. Howel returned to Peak's Mill this week after a two weeks visit to J. B. Hockensmith's.

Rev. T. J. Stevenson and Rev. D. T. Phelps closed a meeting at North Fork last Sunday with about fifteen additions to the church.

Our public school near this place, under the management of Miss Mary Merna, is progressing splendidly. Miss Mary is an excellent teacher and is liked by all her pupils.

Another wedding soon.

Miss Mollie Smith is visiting friends in Louisville.

Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at Pleasant Hill.

Misses Mollie Munson and Belle Penn are the guests of Miss Mary Penn.

Mr. Sam'l Forsee and daughter, Miss Annie, spent several days in Owen last week.

Miss Nannie Forsee, who has been visiting relatives in Louisville for the past two weeks, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Ivy Tutt, of Eminence, who has been visiting at her father's, Mr. Albert

Hodges', for several weeks, leaves for home to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Penn returned home Wednesday, after an extended visit through Missouri. Among other things Mrs. Penn brought some specimens of gold, one from the mine of her brother, Judge Green, of Webb city.

The most remarkable shooting ever heard of in this section was done by Mr. Henry Church last week. While hunting on Elk-horn, just below the mill, he fired into a flock of blue wing ducks, killing 24 and wounding 6 at one shot.

The Peak's Mill Base Ball Club deserves the blue ribbon. They defeated the Tigers several weeks since, and the River Club Saturday. The score Saturday standing 32 to 18. They have received a challenge from the Elmville club, which has been accepted. The game will take place some time next week.

The meeting which was in progress at Pleasant Hill last week closed Saturday night with 9 additions, 6 by letter and 3 by immersion. Mr. Ford, who was conducting the meeting, had an engagement elsewhere this week and was compelled to leave. An effort is being made to get some one else to continue the meeting for a week longer.

But little wheat has been sowed.

We will have a Post-office in a few days.

Prof. J. C. Bridges spent several days last week with friends in Greenup Fork neighborhood, Owen county.

Mr. Frank Bridges, one of Owen's most popular young men, visited relatives several days last week, near this place.

Mr. C. M. Hall killed a large black snake Saturday evening, six feet long, that was trying to swallow a half grown rabbit.

Mr. L. A. Hedrick left on the eleventh instant to visit friends in Indiana, Illinois and Kansas, and will return home in the spring.

Mr. W. S. McCord, accompanied by his two accomplished daughters, Misses Belle and Lou, spent last week in Cincinnati, taking in the Exposition.

The series of meetings conducted by Rev. Hiram Ford and Rev. Mr. Elliott at Bethany, Owen county, closed a few days ago with 65 additions to the church.

Mr. M. B. Forwood spent last week in Cincinnati, visiting friends and relations. Mr. Forwood has only been here a few months, yet he has become quite popular among our people.

Mr. J. N. Bridges spent several days last week with a friend on the waters of East Eagle. Madam Rumor says Mr. Bridges will soon discontinue his visits and bring her home with him.

S. N. Hodges, Esq., will deliver a Sunday-school lecture at Mt. Vernon Church on the 15th inst., at three o'clock p. m. Everyone should attend, for Mr. H. is one of the best speakers in the State.

At the Mt. Vernon Church on the 8th inst., while Rev. Mr. Cobb was preaching to a large and attentive congregation, considerable disturbance was created on the ladies side of the church by a house snake crawling up the aisle. It was soon killed and quiet restored.

Died.—On the 8th inst., Mr. Robert E. Conly, after a lingering illness of several months with consumption. The funeral services were conducted at Mt. Vernon Church, on the 9th, by Rev. Mr. Frazier, and the remains interred in the Mt. Vernon Cemetery. The family have many friends who weep with them.

Our neighbor, James W. Bridges, went to Louisville last Monday and was employed by the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse as a drummer for the house. Mr. Bridges is the right man in the right place, as he is the most influential man in this part of the country and will doubtless ship them the greater portion of the weed in these parts.

Died.—Near this place, on the 26th of September, Mrs. Lucinda Sharp, wife of J. A. Sharp. Mrs. Sharp was beloved by all who knew her, and was a consistent member of the Christian Church. The bereaved husband and children have the sympathy of many friends. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Hiram Ford, after which the remains were interred in the family burying ground.

We notice that your Peak's Mill correspondent says we were mistaken in one of our items. If it is the one we think Z. alludes to we are constrained to believe that we are right and Z. misinformed. Yet he may be able to see further into the matter than we supposed; but from the fact that the Professor has begun to erect a fine dwelling for himself, we are inclined to believe some one will soon be lucky enough to entrap him.
